DETAILED ACTION

I. Rejection of claims 9 and 10 under 25 USC 102 as anticipated by Sheth or Merrill will not be maintained. Applicant is correct Sheth or Merrill does not teach the instant composition comprising nimesulide.

II. Applicant's arguments filed 1/7/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. See rejection below.

III. Rejection of claims 1-8, 11, 14-17 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Singh et al (US 5876751; 3/2/99) will be maintained for reasons on record and reasons as follows. Applicant argues that Singh does not disclose a control release pharmaceutical composition of nimesulide. Applicant argues that the dose was administered 3 times daily which clearly demonstrates that the dosage was not time-released. Examiner argues that prior art is not required to show in Examples all of the possible compositions and their time-release patterns. However, Examiner reiterates that Singh does teach control release (sustained release) of non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs including nimesulide. See column 4 lines 9-14.

IV. Claims 9, 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The prior art does not teach or suggest the instant invention comprising the instant basic and acidic substances of claims 9 and 10.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
